QUEER JOURNALISM.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—The P. C.
Advertiser has the Mechanics' Union figured down fine. Their local editor being a loyal member manufacturer his items by stating what he said or thought in the Union's meeting, and the following morning said paper regales its readers with the same. If said editor wishes to make a three-legged stool of himself, no doubt the Union and the public can stand the racket as long as this political curio and his paper can.

MAUI NEWS.

Reform Party Ticket--Weekling
the J. A. King--Nights of Pythias--Rifle Shooting.

The meeting called by the Central Committee of the Reform Party for the purpose of nominating Nobles and Representatives for the coming election was held at the warehouse of the Kahului R. R. Co. at Kahui-lui last Thursday, 26th inst., at 3 p. m. A large number of persons qualified to vote for Nobles had gathered from all the adjacent plantations of Waiheo, Wailuku, Wai-kapu, Spreckelsville, Paia, Hamakuapoko and Makawao, and the usually quiet place presented a very lively appearance. The meeting was called to order by Mr. F. L. Stolz, who moved that Mr. W. H. Cornwell be elected chairman of the meeting, which carried and Mr. F. L.
Stolz was appointed secretary. The following gentlemen were nominated as candidates for Nobles:

Messrs. L. von Tempisky and Jas.
Anderson (2 years).

Messrs. W. H. Cornwell and R.
D. Wallbridge (4 years).

Messrs. H. P. Baldwin and W. Y.
Horne, Sr. (6 years).

For Representatives for the district of Wailuku the meeting nominated Messrs. P. Cockett of Wai-kapu and W. K. Makakoa of Waiheo. The platform of the Ministry as published in the papers of last week was read by the secretary, and the nominees present requested to give their views on the policy laid down in it. Messrs. Baldwin, Cornwell, von Tempisky and Anderson in response made a few remarks, repeatedly cheered by the audience.
The meeting adjourned after a short and most orderly convention about 4:15 p. m.

The wrecking of the bark Jas. A.
King, which was knocked down at auction to Kahului R. R. Co., has been vigorously pushed by the Company. They placed a heavy charge of dynamite in the hold of the wreck Christmas day in order to break it up quick, and the fragments left of the once stately vessel present a sad desolate view.

At a meeting of Aloha Lodge No.
3, K. of P., held Saturday, 28th inst., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

P. C., Dr. Geo. Herbers.

C. H., L. Laws.

V. C., Dr. A. A. Crane.

Prel., F. S. Armstrong.

M. of F., F. L. Stolz.

K. of R. & S., L. M. Vettesen.

(re-elected).

M. of E., A. Barnes.

M. at A., J. Millward.

P. C. Asst., G. M. Tweedie.

The meeting was held for the first time at the new hall of the Lodge, upstairs over the Custom House offices in Kahului, which has just been fitted up for a lodge room, and is a very neat, tasteful hall. It is doubtful whether Honolulu itself can boast a neater, prettier meeting room than this one, and the valiant knights are justly proud of it.

(From another correspondent.)

Pursuant to a call from the Chairman of the Central Committee of the Reform Party of Maui, the voters for Nobles assembled in convention at Kahului on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 26th, to nominate a ticket for Nobles.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. F. L. Stolz, who called for the election of a Chairman pro tem., as the permanent Chairman was unable to attend on account of sickness. Mr. W. H. Cornwell was elected to serve in that capacity, and upon taking the chair called for the nomination of a Secretary, which resulted in the choice of Mr. F. L.
Stolz.

The chairman thanked those present for choosing him to preside and stated that he supposed that all there assembled knew what the meeting was called for, and that those not in sympathy with the party could retire if they wished.
He then called for nominations for Nobles for the short term (2 years).
Messrs. James Anderson of Maka-wao and L. von Tempisky of Kula were the only nominees and they were chosen by acclamation. The next was for the term of four years and as there were but two nominated, Messrs. R. D. Wallbridge of Wai-kapu and W. H. Cornwell of Waiheo, they were chosen by acclamation. The call for nomination of candidates for the long term (6 years) brought forth the names of Hon. H. P. Baldwin of Haiku and W. Y. Horne of Lahaina, who being the only candidates were also chosen by acclamation. This ended the nominations for Nobles and the chairman declared the nominations closed.

The ticket stands, Hon. H. P.
Baldwin and W. Y. Horne for 6 years, W. H. Cornwell and R. D.
Wallbridge for 4 years, and James Anderson and L. von Tempisky for 2 years.

The chairman then called for the report from the committee appointed at the last convention to select candidates for Representatives for the district of Wailuku. In the absence of the chairman, Mr. Stolz reported that the committee recommended the names of Mr. P. Cockett of Waiikapu to represent South Wai-luku, and Mr. W. K. Makakoa of Waiheo to represent North Wailuku.
Upon a call for votes from the voters of Wailuku district upon this recommendation, these candidates were unanimously nominated.

A call was made for some one to explain the platform of the party, and on motion the reply of the Ministry to a manifesto from the voters of Hawaii asking for an expression of the policy of the Government, was adopted as the party platform.

The secretary then read the reply, which was received with applause.

Mr. W. H. Cornwell said that as a candidate he would pledge himself to support the platform of the party and would do all in his power to promote good government.

Hon. H. P. Baldwin said that as a candidate he would work for good government. It was a great sacrifice of time to represent them, but his earnest and sincere desire for good government was an inducement for him to go. In regard to the clause in the reply, "That measures should be taken to guard against the undue centralization of national power by promoting the gradual extension of self-government," he fully believed in and endorsed, and should work in that line though he could see where it would be rather expensive and cumbersome especially in the thinly populated districts of the country. It reminded him of what "Mark Twain" said after returning home from here, he likened the government to the machinery of the Great Eastern in a sardine box. However, he believed in it as a whole and would support it. In relation to the Chinese he was in favor of restriction, and had committed himself to that policy in the last Legislature. If the Chinese are restricted to working only as laborers, they come here with their eyes open and know what to expect. In regard to these in the country new he admitted having been seriously puzzled as to what disposition should be made of them. He wished to respect and protect the rights of every one, and thought the question could be settled by wise legislation. He did not object to restricting those now engaged as laborers in the country, from entering the trades or mechanical pursuits, but thought it unjust and oppressive to compel children of respectable Chinese now in the country and students who have been looking forward to something better, to take a hoe and go into the canneld to work. He fully believed in Chinese restriction and did not look at the matter from the planters' point of view only, but that the good of the country at large called for it. He considered the platform outlined by the Ministry, as a whole, good and sound, and he should support it. He said he took a real interest in the prosperity of the country, and if elected would work for the good of both foreigners and Hawaiians.

Messrs. James Anderson and L. von Tempisky addressed the meeting, saying in substance that they should support the platform of the party and would work for good sound government.

Mr. Gulick, as one of a committee appointed at Makawao to make a report at this meeting, said that as the Chairman was absent he would report. At that meeting (held at Makawao) Messrs. Baldwin, Anderson, Horner, Kamakele, Kia Nahalelua and Cornwell were nominated as candidates for Nobles. Four of these candidates were nominated at this meeting, which he thought a very auspicious fact. There being no further business the meeting adjourned sine die.

PRIZE SHOOTING.

The members of the Maui Rifle Association assembled on Dec. 25th to shoot for 3 prizes, the first given by the association since its organization. The prizes were medals, one gold and two silver. They were manufactured by Wenner & Co. of Honolulu, and are very handsome specimens of the jeweler's art. They are all of the same size and nearly the same design, the greatest difference being in the lettering. The lower part is about the size of a half dollar, suspended from a cross bar by two small chains, and in all bearing the emblem of the association made in enamel. The emblem is a bull's eye and cross rifle; in a circle around the outer rim are the words, "Maui Rifle Association;" on the gold medal they are in enamel, on the 2d prize, silver medal, they are in raised gold, and on the third the words are simply engraved. The conditions under which these medals were shot for, are, that the association shall hold monthly shooting contests and those making the largest score at these several meetings shall hold the medals for one month, and at the end of twelve months the three largest aggregate scores shall be awarded the medals permanently.

The fortunate ones this month or rather for the month of January, 1890, are: N. Ormsted, 1st medal;
J. N. S. Williams, 2d; and H. B.
Bailey, 3d. The score was as follows:

A von Gravemeyer 24, H. Dickey 21, Jas Anderson 9, Mr Gulick 30, H. P. Baldwin 29, Capt Heinemann 20, W von Gravemeyer 28, J G Anderson 27, L A Andrews 26, F W Hardy 30, E Ormsted 26, H B Bailey 31, N Ormsted 35, A F Linder 21, Dr A A Crane 28, J N S Williams
33, A Hocking 29, S Hocking 19, J Wagner 22, G Osborne 22, L Wilber 24, A Gilhus 21, Jas Cowan 23.

The range was 200 yards, but the weather was very unfavorable for good shooting, as the wind was blowing almost a gale.

Hamaquapoko, Dec. 27, 1889.

evening. The church was filled in every part, many people had to stand of the Hon. Henry Waterhouse and consisted of prayers, scripture reading, addresses, anthems and hymns by the Kamehameha School Glee Club and Chorus, and Kaumakapili the organ by the organist, Mr. Wray Taylor. An interlude after one of the hymns was played on the chime in the organ were also used. The Kamehameha boys acquitted themselves well, their fine singing being
